

Hospice

Hospice workers help people who are at the end of their lives. They make sure that these very ill people are comfortable. They also help family members during this difficult time.

Are you a person who:

- Can help people with difficult situations?
- Is a good listener, when friends are hurting?
- Is caring yet can control your emotions?

What is the salary?

$21,000 (Aide) - $63,000 (RN) - $93,000 (Director)

Employment outlook

How can you prepare to become a Hospice Worker?

- Talk with Hospice Workers.
- Read books about end of life.
- Complete community service with people who are nearing the end of their lives.

Career steps

Director
Registered Nurse
Licensed Practical Nurse
Social Worker/Bereavement Counselor
Volunteer Coordinator
Aide

How much schooling is needed?

Associate's Degree - Bachelor's Degree

What are similar careers?

- Clergy or Pastoral Care
- Counseling
- Social Work

“

My work with families and their dying loved ones is a life-changing experience. It's the hardest thing I've ever done. Yet I love my work.”