Careers that ♥ you back

Information Technology

Information Technology (IT) workers use computers to help in many ways. They help the health care professionals keep better records. Technology also aids professionals as they care for people across many different places.

Employment outlook

Above Average Growth

Are you a person who:

- Likes computers and helping older adults?
- Understands different ways to edit and change messages?
- Wants to have the freedom to work anytime, anywhere?

What is the salary?

$50,000 – $140,000

How can you prepare to become an Information Technology Worker?

- Practice fixing computer problems; read directions in the manuals.
- Plan a big project and keep very complete records.
- Study how apps and computer programs work.

How much schooling is needed?

Bachelor's Degree plus certain technical certifications

What are similar careers?

- Computer Programmer
- Mathematician
- Medical Records Specialist

Career steps

Technical Director
Senior Analyst
Data-Base Administrator
Analyst or Systems Engineer
Help Desk Staff

*I love being in a field where I am using my computer skills. Working in a helping profession is a big plus."

LeadingAge Ohio