Author's Guide

The Editor of WPA: Writing Program Administration invites contributions that are appropriate to the interests and concerns of those who administer writing programs in American and Canadian colleges and universities. Articles on teaching writing or research in composition are acceptable only if they deal with the relationship of these activities to program administration. WPA is especially interested in articles on topics such as establishing and maintaining a cohesive writing program, training composition staff, testing and evaluating students and programs, working with department chairs and deans, collaborating with high school or community college teachers, and so on.

The length of articles should be approximately 2-4,000 words. Authors should submit an original plus two copies, with the author identified only on a separate cover letter. Include a self-addressed, stamped envelope if you would like a copy of your manuscript returned to you. All articles are anonymously reviewed by our Editorial Board, and their responses will be forwarded to you within about ten weeks of receipt of the manuscript.

Articles should be suitably documented using the current MLA Handbook, although as much reference as possible should be included within the text. Annotated bibliographies accompanying articles are encouraged, as well as any other apparatus which might make material more conceptually and practically valuable to writing program administrators. The editor reserves the right to edit manuscripts to conform to the style of the journal.

Authors whose articles are accepted for publication will be asked to submit their articles both in print form and on IBM compatible disk, if possible. (An article submitted on disk using WordPerfect in particular will greatly facilitate production.) Authors will also be asked to submit a 100 word biography for inclusion in the "Notes on Contributors" section of the journal.

Article deadlines: Fall/Winter issue, March 1; Spring issue, September 1.

Relevant announcements and calls for papers are also acceptable. Announcement deadlines: Fall/Winter issue, August 15; Spring issue, December 15.

Choice Readings for College Writers

Outlooks and Insights

A READER FOR COLLEGE WRITERS

Third Edition

Edited by PAUL ESCHHOLZ and ALFRED ROSA, both of the University of Vermont

A composition reader offering 98 selections (78 essays drawn from different disciplines, 11 short stories, and 9 poems) organized into 8 thematic chapters. The text begins with personal experience and later moves into broader concerns such as campus life, culture and pop culture, and nature and science. More than half (57) of the selections are new to this edition.

Paperbound. 800 pages (probable).

Publication: January 1991

Instructor's Manual available

Contexts

A THEMATIC READER

Edited by LINDA SIMON, Director, The Harvard University Writing Center

This composition reader offers 53 essays, all linked by a common emphasis on contexts that shape personal identity. Headnotes for each section include prereading questions dealing with the larger issues raised by the selections. Discussion questions following the readings focus on the context in which the work was written, the author's rhetorical strategies, and the student's own responses.

Paperbound. 480 pages (probable).

Publication: January 1991

Instructor's Manual available
