

FIELDS OF WRITING
Readings across the Disciplines

Fourth Edition

NANCY R. COMLEY, Queens College, CUNY
DAVID HAMILTON, University of Iowa
CARL H. KLAUS, University of Iowa
ROBERT SCHOLES, Brown University
NANCY SOMMERS, Harvard University

Contains 78 readings, 30 percent of which are new
■ Stresses cross-curricular reading, with selections drawn equally from the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences
■ New edition gives greater attention to issues of gender and multiculturalism

Paper / 794 pp. / Just Published
Instructor's Manual available
Instructor's Edition (manual included) also available

COMMON GROUND
Reading and Writing about America's Cultures

LAURIE G. KIRSZNER, Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science
STEPHEN R. MANDELL, Drexel University

Focuses on the diversity of life in the United States
■ Contains 59 essays arranged both rhetorically and thematically
■ Includes ethnically diverse student-written essays
■ More than 50 percent of essays included are written by women

Paper / 485 pp. / Just Published
Instructor's Manual available
Instructor's Edition (manual included) also available

THEMES FOR WRITERS

PAUL ESCHHOLZ and ALFRED ROSA, both of the University of Vermont

Contains 67 brief essays organized into 12 thematic groupings
■ Presents readings that demonstrate specific writing strategies and elements of the essay
■ Includes vocabulary questions, questions for understanding each essay, and three student essays

Paper / 450 pp. / Just Published
Instructor's Manual available
Instructor's Edition (manual included) also available

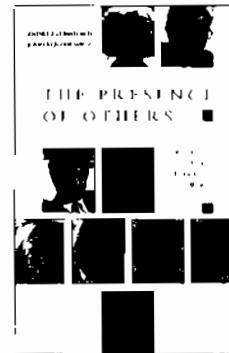

THE ST. MARTIN'S GUIDE TO WRITING

Fourth Edition, with Handbook

RISE B. AXELROD, California State University at San Bernardino
CHARLES R. COOPER, University of California at San Diego

Provides students with a variety of tools that make the writing process more accessible
■ Helps students look critically at what they read and write
■ Includes 34 essays (12 new, 11 by students) and 4 short stories, along with 2 chapters on critical thinking and 3 chapters on research

Cloth / 816 pp. / Just Published
Instructor's Resource Manual available
Also available in shorter paperbound edition (without Handbook)
Paper / 704 pp. / Just Published

THE PRESENCE OF OTHERS
Readings for Critical Thinking and Writing

ANDREA A. LUNSFORD, The Ohio State University
JOHN J. RUSZKIEWICZ, The University of Texas at Austin

Presents a diverse set of perspectives on major issues and teaches students to examine those perspectives critically
■ 73 readings offer full representation of conservative and liberal viewpoints
■ Provides cross-references and study questions to help students connect the readings

Paper / 692 pp. / Just Published
Instructor's Manual available
Instructor's Edition (manual included) also available

THE PRACTICE OF WRITING

Fourth Edition

ROBERT SCHOLES, Brown University
NANCY R. COMLEY and JANICE PERITZ, both of Queens College, CUNY

Provides instruction, readings, and abundant practice in all of the forms of writing with which composition courses are concerned
■ Presents a wide range of genres, including essays, short stories, photographs, and poems

Paper / 384 pp. / Just Published
Instructor's Manual available
Instructor's Edition (manual included) also available

