

Give students the tools to create change

Changing Writing A Guide with Scenarios

Johndan Johnson-Eilola, Clarkson University

Informed by Johnson-Eilola's research, this brief guide with online scenarios gives students the rhetorical tools they need in order to respond to and create change with their own writing. LaunchPad Solo comes automatically with the purchase of a new text.

A guide and reference for any writing situation

How to Write Anything A Guide and Reference with Readings

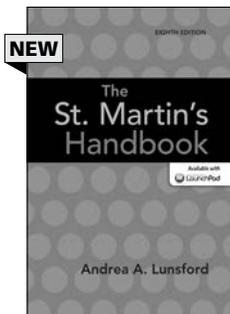

Third Edition

John J. Ruszkiewicz, University of Texas at Austin

Jay T. Dolmage, University of Waterloo

Instructors at hundreds of schools have turned to How to Write Anything for clear, focused writing advice that gives students just what they need, when they need it.

The comprehensive handbook for the literacy revolution

The St. Martin's Handbook

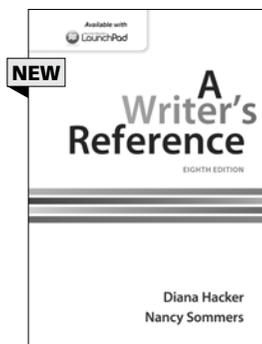

Eighth Edition

Andrea A. Lunsford, Stanford University

Andrea Lunsford's comprehensive advice in The St. Martin's Handbook, Eighth Edition, supports students as they move from informal, social writing to both effective academic writing and to writing that can change the world.

Core support for college writers

A Writer's Reference

Eighth Edition

Diana Hacker late of Prince George's Community College

Nancy Sommers, Harvard University

No skill is more essential to college students than writing, and no handbook has proven more useful to more students than A Writer's Reference. As always, the new edition of the bestselling, most responsive writing handbook supports the college writer with authoritative answers to questions about format, grammar and style, evidence, citation, punctuation, and more.

This edition's online component, LaunchPad, gives students access to interactive exercises, writing activities, and videos.

Students find help. You see progress.

Andrea A. Lunsford,
Stanford University

Available in versions based on either the Hacker or Lunsford handbooks, Writer's Help 2.0 combines "the simplicity and usability of Google," (according to one student) with the trusted content and instruction that free online resources lack. Using smart search, students can get expert advice quickly, whether for coursework or their own writing. Assignment and tracking features make it easy for instructors and administrators to monitor student progress individually, as a class, or program-wide.

MindTap

Tap into the personalized teaching experience.

Create your course using familiar tools—like YouTube, Google Docs, and Evernote—woven into vetted instructional content. Engage your students with multimodal assignments that move composition off the page and into the real world. Track more than just the grade with a progress app that shows student engagement and time in course. MINDTAP FOR COMPOSITION creates real writers using everyday tools, and helps you teach your course, for your students.

Easily set your course

Add videos, web links and your own content directly into the learning path or eBook, and edit, rearrange, hide, or delete content to match your course.

Elevate thinking

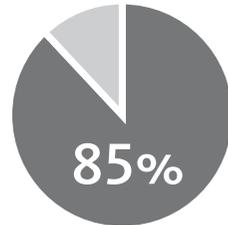

Each section includes multimodal activities that ask students to think critically about images, videos, websites and more to further engage them in the writing process.

Promote better outcomes

A visual dashboard fueled by powerful analytics tracks learner engagement and class progress, while empowering students with information on where they stand, and where they need to focus.

85% of instructors felt that MindTap contributed to student learning outcomes.

“MindTap meets students in the fully digital age in which they live, tapping into their needs and interests, while giving instructors freedom and flexibility to customize courses to fit their needs and interests, too.”

Christa Raney,
Instructor at University of North Alabama

H. Holdstein, Duane Roen, and Edward M. White

NEW RELEASES

First-Year Composition: From Theory to Practice

Edited by Deborah Coxwell-Teague &
Ronald F. Lunsford. 420 pages.

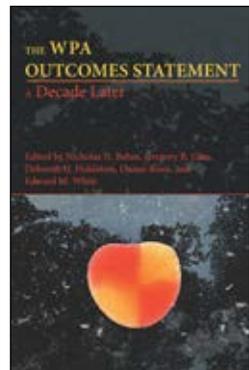

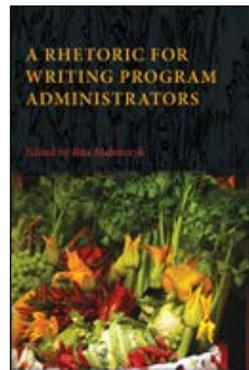

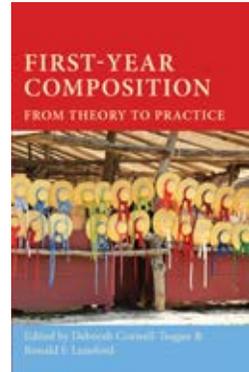

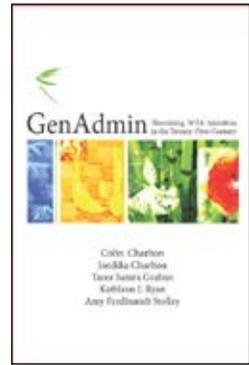

Twelve of the leading theorists in composition studies answer, in their own voices, the key question about what they hope to accomplish in a first-year composition course. Each chapter, and the accompanying syllabi, provides rich insights into the classroom practices of these theorists.

A Rhetoric for Writing Program Administrators

Edited by Rita Malencyk. 471 pages.

Thirty-two contributors delineate the major issues and questions in the field of writing program administration and provide readers new to the field with theoretical lenses through which to view major issues and questions.

WPA Workshop July 12-15

WPA Institutes July 16

CWPA Conference July 16-19

As our scholarship has shown time and time again, the work of writing program administration is difficult and labor-intensive, yet many invent strategies for approaching that work in ways that make it manageable and exceedingly rewarding. This year's conference will continue and expand that conversation of sustainability in writing program administration from a variety of perspectives: the sustainability of the WPA, the sustainability of writing programs, and the sustainability of writing as we know it. Register now at: cwpa2015.com
